DON'T MISS!!!

STEAMPUNK Makers' Day

FREE ADMISSION

Saturday 16 January, 10am - 5pm

Steampunk is for imaginative makers. This day offers ideas, materials, advice and inspiration. It includes:

Steampunk Silhouettes

Memorialise your visit to the Steampunk exhibition with a personal 'instant' silhouette portrait, the Victorian equivalent of the Polaroid.

Meccano workshop

with the Henley Society of Meccano Engineers, all day in the top gallery.

Stalls for buying makers' requisites

Steampunk under the hammer

One of MHS's signature events: an exhibition 'for sale'. An auction of the contents of the 'Steampunk In Print' exhibition on display in the entrance gallery. The auction will begin at 3.30pm in the Top Gallery.

At The Museum of The History of Science, Broad Street
