

Whatever the Weather

SOMETHING IN THE AIR

Activities for ages 5 to 105
Top Gallery 10am-4pm

Amazing Anemometer

How do we talk about wind? Learn about the Beaufort Scale and make an instrument for measuring the speed of the wind to take home.

Nifty Nephoscope

Where are the clouds heading? Make a very simple instrument to help you figure it out.

Storytelling

with Rand Russell
Top Gallery 12pm, 1pm and 2pm

Location colour code

TOP GALLERY

ENTRANCE GALLERY

BASEMENT GALLERY

WEATHER DEMOS

Entrance Gallery
11:30am, 12:30 pm and 2:30 pm

CHAT WITH AN EXPERT

Be a Martian Meteorologist

Entrance Gallery (11:30am-1pm)

Charting the Climate

Come and find out more about the Old Weather project and how crowd-sourcing is reconstructing the climate and sea ice levels of yester-year.

Entrance Gallery (1:30-4pm)

TRAIL

Can you weather it?

Pick up a trail to take you through the Special Exhibition.

Atmospheres Exhibition Tours

by curator Stephen Johnston
(11:30am, 12:30pm, 1:30pm and 3:30pm)

TALKS

Basement (20 minutes each)

Climate and Weather on Mars

Luca Montabone (11am)

Geoengineering the Climate

Simon Driscoll (12 noon)

A Cloud of Memories

Share your stories and make them part of our memory cloud in the basement.

Basement (All day)

Singing in the Rain

Our own MHS jukebox of weather-related music

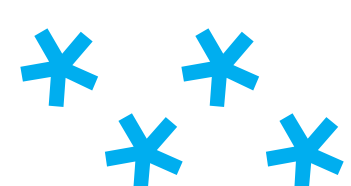

Stairwell (All day)

Crowdsourcing your Climate - Ship Ahoy!

Joan Arthur (1 pm)

Man or Nature? How to Find Out Who is to Blame

Dr Friederike E.L.Otto (2 pm)

Admission Free

